“ I grew very fond of Anna. She was always happy to see me and she remembered what time I would come see her and she knew I would come a half hour early and she would be waiting for me. She was always there to greet me and always ready for me in the morning. I shared many memories with her including communion on Sundays. She told me many great stories and she told me about her childhood and her family and she shared with me pictures of her and her dad that were very special to her. To me she was very special to me. There was so much more to her. I held her hand some days and it comforted her in a way that maybe none of us would understand. One day she held my hand for about 8 hours and she would relax. We watched Golden Girls Together and All in the Family and Three's Company and of course the Hallmark Channel. She would tell me Alicia the hubba-hubba happily ever after movies are on and we would watch them. She brightened all of my days. She would read me some of her cookbooks and she colored me a bookmark. She was very sweet and we had our good days. I'm going to miss her terribly and I do already.

“ When I was working with Anna and I asked her what she wants for dinner she said can you cook Mexican meet balls because I like it and she told me Bertha you are a good cook, can I have more? She asked me, are you my friend? And I answered , yes Anna I'm your friend and she said we are going to be friends for ever.
