“ Betty is my Great Aunt. She was the kindest and most wonderful Christian woman you could have ever met. She loved God and people. I was told on the day she passed away she was singing. This how I remembered my Aunt always joyful and singing songs of praise to God.

One of my most fondest memories of Bettye is how she loved to play with the kids. She would get in the yard at age 70 and play ball with the kids just as if she was their age. She would play ball in a dress/skirt and heels at times! go figure.

We all wanted her to sit down and take it easy, but Bettye had just as much energy as those kids!

Heaven has welcomed one of its angels now.

We will miss you dearly!

Alicia, Reginald, Aaron, Myles, Drake and Morgan Fucuals.

My Mom and Dad will miss you too!
