

Celia Anne Carmichael

May 4, 1956 - August 5, 2024

Celia “Ce Ce” Carmichael

Celia Ann Carmichael was born to Marilyn and Calvin Carmichael in Vallejo, California on May 4, 1956. She was the oldest of three children. She was joined by brother Ben seven years later and Matthew two years after Ben. She attended St Basil’s Catholic Grade School and Carondelet High School where she graduated in 1974. Celia left high school and attended Holy Names College (her mother’s alma mater). She graduated four years later with a bachelor’s degree in education. She returned to college to receive a master’s degree in education from St Mary’s in Moraga.

Once she received her master’s degree, she began to write curriculum for the California Prison System. She also worked as an educator in the system for over 35 years. Celia’s biggest joy was time spent with her friends and especially her family: parents, grandparents, siblings, her cat “Lambie”, sister-in laws, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Today we celebrate the blessing of Celia in our lives. Our family wishes to extend sincere gratitude to the many families, friends, and caregivers who loved our dear Celia. Keep a piece of her genuine “giving and loving” nature in your hearts forever!

A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, September 7 at 11 AM at Twin Chapels Mortuary, 1100 Tennessee St., Vallejo.

Memorial Gifts or Contributions in Celia’s name may be sent to: Carondelet High School, 1133 Winston Drive, Concord, CA.
