“ My brother was one of the best people I have ever met. God blessed me with a brother who took care of me like a father. I can never think of a time that he was mad or frustrated with me. He always said that everything was "alright or would be ok" at times when I was being dramatic. He loved his family and very proud to be a father. It is hard to imagine my life without my big brother. I look forward to seeing both my brothers again. I am so appreciative of everyone who came to see my brother during his wake. I can see that others loved him just like I did. I will miss you big brother...till we meet again.
