CINDY KAY SANDERS

May 22, 1971 – June 3, 2016

Cindy Kay Sanders, 45, passed away suddenly Friday at her home in Dixon.

Dakken Properties as an apartment manager from 1994-2001

Housewife / Homemaker 1990-2016.

Cindy was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in Dixon CA. She was an angel on earth and had a gift with lifting the burdens of others. Cindy enjoyed seeing others happy and was described as the "best listener" a friend could ask for by many of her friend's. Cindy had the ability to listen and empathize with others without casting judgment. She knew how to share a really good cry or laugh with others. Cindy was a joy to be around. Before Cindy had her first child she made the decision that she would stay home and love, nurture and care for her children and not have them raised by someone else. In 1992 her first daughter Shaylen was born, then her son Jordan in 1993 and then another daughter, Cortney in 1997. Cindy was a loving nurturing mother to all three of her children and developed a strong bond with each one of them. Shaylen, Jordan and Cortney have always been able to count on Cindy for unconditional love and support and as a result have developed in to great young adults. Cindy is loved deeply by each one of her children and will be missed by each one of them. Cindy was the best wife that a husband could ask for. She was a kind, thoughtful, loving wife and always put her husband's needs first. Cindy was married to Jared for al-most 26 years and it's hard to picture one without the other as they were usually always together. The love between Cindy and Jared wasn't hard to see, you could see it the way they cared for and looked at each other. Cindy was loved deeply by her in-laws, nephews, cousins, grandmother and all that knew her.

Tribute Wall

“ I would like to send my heartfelt condolences to the Sanders family. I didn't get the many years of knowing Cindy and having her in my life, like so many others did, but just for the short time I knew her I got to see her beautiful spirit. She had this light that shined so bright. I have only one story with an example of her kindness, but that beautiful memory will live on, and I will continue to tell that story for the rest of my life. Jared, your family will be in our thoughts and prayers! We love you and mourn with you, but we also celebrate with you in the knowledge that you will be together for eternity.

“ Cindy what a blessing it's been to of shared many memories with you. One of our happiest moments was as you and I watched Shaylen and Amber all dressed up for the Senior Ball for High school we both shared tears as we watched our beautiful daughters both get into a limo with their dates they both looked so beautiful! I am honored to of knew you not only as my daughter Amber's best friends mom but as my friend! I will miss our long chats we had shared. I love you Cindy!

“ Cindy and I were childhood friends who met again as young marrieds. She quickly became more than just a friend. Cindy and I shared laughs and tears, joys and frustrations. She was able to keep an eternal perspective regardless of what was going on, and this was a huge blessing in my life. She listened to me and didn't judge me when I was going through my divorce and celebrated with me when I remarried. We shared everything, and it didn't matter if it had been 2 days or 6 months since we talked, we always picked up where we left off. Cindy was a bright star in a difficult world, and I am better for having known her. My prayers are with Jared and the kids as they navigate their life and learn to find a "new normal." I love you, Cindy. 'Till we meet again.

“ Cindy continues to touch my life for good even at this time. I am a better person because of her and she reminds me of what is most important in life, loving one another and sharing it today. She was always a wonderful neighbor just a few homes down from me and also a fellow church member. She always glowed with beauty inside and out and let her light shine. I love her and her beautiful family very much. She was an angel on earth and is an angel in heaven on earth. Love her so much.

“ Jared, me and my family are very sorry for your loss. It's hard to find the right words to express our sorrow at this moment. As you said, thanks to the atonement of Jesus Christ, this is not the end. It is only the beginning of our eternal lives. She is now dwelling with our Heavenly Father. Our deepest condolences, prayers, and support are with you and your children. We love you. Anything that you need, let us know.
