It is with great sadness that we announce the peaceful passing of Consolacion Asuncion on April 18th, 2017 in her 103rd year. Beloved wife of the late Guillermo Sr. (1974), she leaves behind her daughter Erlinda (Manuel), and sons Angelito (Herminia) and Guillermo Jr. (Judy). She is preceded by her late daughter Angelita (Joseph). Adored Grandmother to Lea (Chris), Kristine (Neal), Mervin (Casey), Lizelle, and Rebecca (Chris). Cherished Great-Grandmother to Sela Grace, Eleanor, Finley, Jacob, John, Charles, and Olivia.

Known to everyone affectionately as Mommy Ching, Consolacion was a Registered Nurse in the Philippines before moving to Canada. After many wonderful years in Hamilton, Ontario, she moved to California to live with her eldest daughter and family. In her spare time, she enjoyed cooking and playing mahjong. She was a huge sports fan to her beloved Toronto Blue Jays.
