DANIEL MARIO COLOMBO

February 26, 1961 - May 4, 2017

Daniel Mario Colombo, 56, passed away on May 4, 2017 from a tragic accident at work. Daniel was born in Vallejo, California to Frank and Marian Colombo. He started his working career at Mare Island Naval Shipyard as an apprentice shipfitter in 1979. He worked there until its closure in 1996 and then he entered another apprenticeship at the Plumbers & Steamfitters U.A. Local 343. Daniel enjoyed playing all sports, especially golf, taking trips to Lake Tahoe with family and friends and doing outdoor activities. He loved spending time with his beloved dog Boots and with his brothers and family. Daniel will be remembered for his booming laughter and uncanny ability to make people laugh. He would always be there for anyone in need. Daniel was a kind and loving brother, uncle and friend. He is survived by his lifetime partner Wendy Barnes, brothers John, Neal (Susan), Michael and his twin brother David. Nieces; Tanya, Christina and great-niece Cassandra. Nephews; Joey, Nicholas, Vincent (Carly) and great-nephew Clayton Colombo. He was preceded in death by his father Frank Colombo and his mother Marian Colombo, and his sister-in-law Gloria Colombo. Visitation will be held 10 am - 4 pm Saturday, May 13 at Twin Chapels Mortuary, 1100 Tennessee St., Vallejo. Interment will be private.

“ We just learned of Dan's passing.
Wendy and the Colombo family,
We are so sorry for your loss. There are no words that will help ease your pain, but please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

When you are having difficulty in trying to make sense of this tragedy, keep your faith in our Father to get you through.

*With love,
Mike and Shannon Maples*
