Daniel Joseph Buonlamperti passed away after a long illness on July 17, 2025, in San Francisco, CA. "Danny" was born on October 13, 1964, in Vallejo, CA, to his parents Joseph and Shireley Buonlamperti. He was raised in Vallejo, and he was the active, mischievous baby of his family, including his older brothers, Samuel Buonlamperti, Raleigh Buonlamperti, Randall Gardner, and his sister, Suzanne Medeiros (David). He graduated from St. Patrick's High School in 1982. Soon after, he began the meat cutter/butcher apprenticeship program in Vallejo, where he excelled. He worked for Lucky Stores for over 30 years as a meat cutter/butcher.

Danny had many pastimes he loved, including cooking, skiing, fly fishing, and duck and turkey hunting. He especially loved and enjoyed spending time at his family cabin on the Upper Sacramento River. He hosted and cooked delicious meals for his many friends at the cabin.

Danny had an infectious laugh and a unique sense of humor. He loved pulling pranks on people, especially his three nieces, whom he loved unconditionally. Danny was predeceased by his parents, stepfather, Victor Federigi, and his three brothers. He is survived by his sister, Suzanne; brother-in-law, David; nieces, Elise (Robert), Erica (Preston), and Emori (Timothy); great-niece, Carsyn; and great-nephew, Cash.

Danny strove to be a loyal son, brother, uncle, and friend, and he loved his people deeply. He was blessed to have the support and love of his friends, Matt Herkenrath, Gail and Vernon Herkenrath, and Marie Heckmann-Pavon.

“Grief only exists where love lives first.” Be free and at peace, Danny Boy!
