

David Lee Arrington

May 30, 1964 - April 26, 2025

Born in Wichita, Kansas, on May 30, 1964, David finished high school in Iowa. After graduation he served in the U S Marines for nine years primarily as a mechanic. After his military service David was self employed as an auto mechanic.

He passed away April 26, 2025, with his loving wife, Maria Teresa by his side. He is also survived by his two sons, Daryl and Darren (Dale) and their son Davis and Dale's son, Dion. Also surrounding David at the time of his death was his loving sister-in-law, Nida, and her husband James Boado and family, Sherry, Angelica and Jason.

David was preceded in death by his mother, Meta Arrington, and two brothers, John and Kevin. He is survived by his brother Mert.

David was a very loving and caring person and loved working on cars for his friends, many of whom relied on him to take care of their automotive needs round the clock. David had difficulty saying no to friends and others who needed help. He was very good at his work of an auto mechanic.

In those final weeks of his life he was particularly grateful for his faithful, committed, caring and loving wife whom he always wanted by his side. In addition, his sons, Daryl and Darren) and their families were present and supportive during these final weeks.
