

Dementia "Deme" Nickolatos

February 12, 1924 - May 7, 2023

Demetria (aka Deme) was born in Vallejo to William and Stamo Cassinos. She attended St. Vincent Elementary and graduated from Vallejo High. Deme met and married Jerry Nickolatos. They had three daughters. They loved traveling. Baking was one of her favorite pass times. Short bread was one of her specialties that everyone loved. One of her joys in life was spending quality time with family and friends and spoiling her grandchildren and greatgrandchildren who called her Meme. She always had a smile on her face, and made it a point to pay a complement every day to a stranger by telling them how nice they looked. Deme was preceded in death by her husband Jerry, daughter Andrea Troy and Grandson Richard Steinberger. She is survived by her daughters, Geraldine (Mike) Steinberger, Iris (Mike) Gepford and son-in-law Mike Troy. Grandchildren Jamie (Mark) Rohrer, Dreanne Fouts, Gina Gepford and Shelley (Daniel) Valdemar. Great Grandchildren, Victoria and Joseph Rohrer, Mary and Jack Fouts, and Elyse and Oliver Gepford-Carr. The family would also give special thanks to our extended family, the Bordons for the loving and care they gave to our mom. Thank you to all the hospice doctors and nurses, especially Verona, for all the special care they provided for mom. Funeral Service Thursday May 18th at St. Constantine/St. Helen Greek Orthodox Church. Entombment to follow at All Souls Cemetery in Vallejo. “ So sorry to hear, Deme was such a great lady. When I worked at Art Floral every week she would bring us some kind of treats. Always a great smile. I will always remembered her with great fondness. Big hugs to the family. Rhonda Vezo-Rice
