

Duane Dill

August 20, 1958 - October 4, 2021

Duane Bradley Dill died suddenly on October 4th at the age of 63. Duane was proud of the fact that he was born in Sanatarium, California in Napa County. His parents Donald and Betty Dill were lifelong Californians. He graduated from Vallejo Senior High in 1976 and continued his studies at both Napa and Solano Community colleges. He and his wife of 32 years, Freda, married on July 22, 1989. Duane loved his pet dogs, especially their longtime canine companion, Isis Dill and most recently Darlene Dill who they adopted from the Humane Society in June of this year.

Duane is survived by his wife, Freda, daughter, Samantha Allen-Matthews, and grandsons Ronnie and KJ. Duane also leaves behind his brothers Kevin and Gary.

Duane worked at Mare Island Navel Shipyard as a Nuclear Pipefitter from 1981 through 1996. After Mare Island closed he worked at various Nuclear Power Plants and with PG&E. He also spent time working at Home Depot where he was an instant favorite of customers and employees alike.

Duane was a great fan of both the San Francisco Giants and the 49ers. His second favorite baseball team was whoever was playing the LA Dodgers. He was known to close most messages and posts with: FTD.

A celebration of life will be held at the Florence Douglas Center in Vallejo on October 29th at 5:00 pm. Please RSVP in advance via email to: DDillRSVP@gmail.com
