

Estela Maria Jojola

April 30, 1935 - April 9, 2026

Estela Maria Jojola, born on April 30, 1935, in Jalisco, Mexico, passed away on April 9, 2026, in Fairfield, California, at the age of 90. She died of a broken heart, having already said goodbye to the love of her life and to a son who left this world too soon. Her heart, which had carried so much love for so many people for so many years, simply decided it was time to rest.

Estela was an amazing woman of integrity, creativity, and business sense. She came to this country carrying all the tools and wisdom she had gathered from her parents, who were well-established business gurus in their own right. She took that knowledge and poured it into the most important venture of her life: building a home and raising a family to the highest of highs. She was equal parts warmth and discipline, tenderness and toughness, and she instilled in her children the importance of faith and hard work, always combined, never one without the other.

Estela created a home where family and friends were always welcome to celebrate and gather. The door was open, the table was set, and there was always room for one more. But some of the most beautiful moments in that home were the quiet ones. When she thought no one was listening, she would sing in the most angelic voice in the privacy of her room.

Estela was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Elias Jojola Jr., and by her son, Carlos Jojola. She is survived by her son, Felipe Jojola; her daughters, Bernice Jojola-Webb and Elaine Jojola; and by a legacy of grandchildren, extended family, and friends whose lives she shaped with her wisdom, her love, and her no-nonsense way of making sure everyone around her became the best version of themselves.

Estela went to church and prayed deeply to God. She lived her faith every day, not just in words but in the way she built her family, loved her children, and opened her home. She now rests in the arms of the God she trusted with her deepest prayers, reunited with Elias and Carlos, whole and at peace.

“ I am saddened by the loss of my dear tía Estela. It is a tremendous double loss along with the loss of my beloved uncle Elias. I will always remember them and their infectious laughter and love for each other. They were both a special part of my life and I will always keep them in my memories of my time with them as I was growing up. She was an amazing woman who had such amazing skills and talents and combined with Elias they created a wonderful life and a beautiful family together. They leave their legacy with us, their values, stories, and memories, that continues to influence us and others. Que Dios los cuida siempre. RIP
