“ Hey Genelle just thinking of you.. I miss seeing you at school and telling you to push down your nose ring because it was always popping up when you talked too fast lol. I had just said bye to you and moved to Louisiana during Christmas break that year and to get out there and find out what happened made me cry for days. My favorite Cancer baby I miss you alot... Merry Christmas my love 💙

“ Genelle I miss you so much there’s not a day that goes by that doesn’t wish I would’ve got off the bus with everyday to make sure you were ok. You were my best friend and first friend I had moving back to Vallejo. I miss the days we would hang at school and walks to the bus after school having good Ol talks about everything under the sun. You knew things about no one else has ever gotten a chance to know and vice versa. You kept me grounded Genelle and I still find it hard to keep it together without you. I miss and love you dearly Genelle.
