GEORGE & SELMA RIDOLA

George Ridola passed away on January 4, 2013. His wife of 65 years, Selma Ridola, passed away on January 6, 2013. George was born in Honolulu, Hawaii on August 28, 1925. Selma was born in San Diego, California, on October 21, 1926. They were longtime Vallejoans and were graduates of Vallejo Senior High School.

George was a proud sheetmetal worker for over 40 years. He enjoyed watching sports, playing cards and gardening in his yard. Selma worked at the Benicia Arsenal until it closed. She enjoyed being a homemaker and was an excellent seamstress and crafter. She also volunteered at Kaiser in Vallejo for several years.

George and Selma are survived by their two daughters, Marie "Punkie" Nelson (Paul) and Cynthia Seward (David); their four grandchildren, Duke Nelson (Jennifer), Bryon Nelson (Kim), Justin Seward, and Kiani Seward; and four great-grandchildren. They are also survived by George's sister, Dorie Samson; and Selma's sisters, Grace Randall, Jean Allen and Patricia Quenga; and her brothers, Louis Pulgencio, Johnnie Pulgencio, Joe Dacong, Sonny Dacong, and Ted Dacong.

A memorial service will be held at Twin Chapels Mortuary, 1100 Tennessee Street, Vallejo, CA, on Friday, January 11, 2013, at 11:00 a.m. Burial will immediately follow the service at Benicia City Cemetery, 1 Riverhill Drive, Benicia, CA.

“ How Far Can A Thought Travel? by Valorie Hill

*As I busy myself with daily things,
You come to mind...
A smile appears, or a thought o where you are.*

*Time goes by, a day or a minute,
You come to mind...
I send a thought from me to you.*

*As we all go along each day,
We come to someone's mind...
A warm feeling, a gentle twinkle of remembrance.*

*A thought CAN travel from me to you,
no matter the distance!.*

*You will be missed by those of us who remember you.
Sincerely your friends, Val and Pat Hill*
