Helen Adele Kaluza

December 22, 1946 - October 2, 2024

Helen Adele Kaluza born as Elena Adelita Mares (77) returned to her heavenly home on October 2, 2024. Her devotion to her family and friends and her firm belief in God supported her throughout her life and ultimately gave her peace within the last years of her life.

Helen was born to the late David and Juanita Mares in Jerome Arizona on December 22, 1946. She was an intelligent and beautiful woman who always put her family first. She loved storytelling, the beach, and most of all traveling the world with her husband. Helen was an energetic and optimistic person. She was a licensed pharmacologist, homemaker, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. Throughout her life, she spent most of her time on the beaches enjoying the sand, the water, and collecting what she called “flat rocks” for her at home projects. No matter what, Helen always did what she put her mind to. She was a well accomplished woman and a very hard worker who will always be remembered for her efforts.

Helen or “Mom” to most, was blessed with a large and loving family She married her husband and bestfriend Edward Kaluza who she always was and now forever is with. Helena raised her three beautiful children Richard C. Madigan, Gary P. Madigan, and Angela D. Madigan with discipline, patience, and humanity. She taught the boys to behave like young men, and her daughter to behave and grow into a woman. Later on down the road she was blessed with her first grandchildren, Ashley F.M. Gesell, Zachary T. Madigan, and Nick Barbarick, and Madeline M. Madigan, who she took care of growing up and was always like a second mom to. Her grandchildren were like her second set of kids, so she always spent as much time with them as possible and treated them as if they were her own. She was a caring and gentle soul who always made you feel welcomed if you walked through her door, so God gave her the gift of great grandchildren, Timothy R. Gesell, Mason J. Gesell, and Violet M. Madgan. From the very beginning, she dedicated herself, her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren to God, making sure they were always blessed with gifts and always prayed for. Not once would you not feel the love through her prayer and not once would a candle never be lit. Helen is preceded in death now with her husband Ed, her son Richard, her parents David and Juanita, her sister Weda, and the many cousins that she loved. She still lives through her son Gary, daughter Angela, grandchildren and great grandchildren, and all the many more who loved her. Mom will be missed dearly by all who knew her. She will be thought of by all who knew her when their feet touch the sand on the Pacific Coast, or any river they may fish. They will feel the wrap of her love when the warm summer breeze hits, and remember that she is with them whenever you see a yellow flower. Always and Forever in our hearts, in our souls, and in our mind and memories.

“ Helen was such a wonderful person, When I first met her, she was so loving and kind I felt welcomed like an old friend even though we had just met. I loved to hear her talk about the kids when they were little. We shared a bond together when Maddy came along. She loved her with all her heart. I love learning some of her recipes, she was one of the best cooks I know. When I was going through a rough time, she invited me over for Thanksgiving and it was the BEST. I know I will see you again Helen your faith and commitment to God ensures that. One thing I will miss is her hugs. Prayers to the family as you go through this time. Gary, Mandy and Maddy if you need anything at all just give me a call. MIMI

Helen was a very good person. I first met her during the time when I got home from work around 7am and our car was on fire. She came to me and said she lives 3 houses from ours. She doesn't even know me but with her big heart she offered to drive my kids to school that day. I will never forget Helen, she was one in a million. Sweet, thoughtful and loving. She never forget saying "I love you Aida". Even in her last few days she called me and I was praying for her cause she said she's not ready. I cried and felt so bad when she passed. I will miss her very much. I love you Helen from the bottom of my heart. We still have plans of going out but now..... My deepest sympathy to the family. My kids, my husband and sisters. We love you dear Helen
