JACK FRANK BURNS

July 2, 1947 – March 9, 2017

Jack Frank Burns, 69, passed away Thursday, March 9 at John Muir Medical Center in Walnut Creek surrounded by his family and friends.

Jack was born July 2, 1947 in Albany, CA to John and Bingta Burns and has lived in the area his entire life. He worked as a Longshoreman for ILW from 1966-1972. He then became a Realtor with Security Pacific Real Estate in February 1972 and became the Broker of Record in 1981. He retired in February 2012 after 45 years in the Real Estate business.

Jack enjoyed spending time with his friends and family, especially his grandchildren. He was very active and enjoyed travelling, taking long walks, hiking, biking, playing racquet ball, golfing, and snow skiing. He was a proud and avid fan and long time season ticket holder of the Golden State Warriors. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Survivors include his companion of 30 years and wife of 10 years, Frances Gold; son, Jack D. Burns; sister, Judy (Brian) Bjork; grandchildren, Jordan and Gianna Burns; and numerous longtime friends and extended family.

A memorial gathering and celebration of life service and reception will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 21 at Green Valley Country Club, 35 Country Club Dr., Fairfield, CA. Burial will be private at Rockville Cemetery, Fairfield.
