

James L. Campi Sr.

August 19, 1941 - March 2, 2013

JAMES L. 'JIM' CAMPI SR.

August 19, 1941 – March 2, 2013

James L. Campi Sr. (Jim), 71, died March 2, 2013. He was born to the late Stanley and Nancy Campi on August 19, 1941 and was a lifelong resident of the Fairfield/Green Valley/Cordelia Area.

Jim graduated from Armijo High School in 1959 and decided to enlist in the US Navy. After serving his country, he went to Napa Junior College, where he met his wife Cheryl, and then on to California State University, Sacramento to continue his education. Jim then worked over 30 years for the California State Automobile Association as a top salesperson, achieving Sales Star multiple times.

Leading others and serving his community was Jim's passion. He dedicated the majority of his life to the fire service, contributing as a firefighter with various departments for nearly 50 years, culminating with his appointment to Fire Chief of the Cordelia Fire Protection District in 1990. Jim also served as President of the Solano County Fire Chief's Association and was on the Board of Directors for Cordelia Fire Protection District. He also served five years as Area Coordinator of the Solano County Office of Emergency Services.

Aside from the fire service Jim gave back to the community in countless ways. He was elected to two terms on the Fairfield Suisun Unified School District Governing Board, including serving as President. He also held the position of Chairman of the Rockville Cemetery District Board for 38 years and was appointed to President of the California Association of Public Cemeteries. Jim was a 42 year member and Past President of the F.a.S.T. Lions club, 34 year member of Native Sons of the Golden West, 20 year member of the Sons of Italy, and served as Director of the Green Valley Home Owners Association.

In his free time, Jim loved to hunt, play golf and spend time with family and friends. He was a member of Green Valley Country club for decades. He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Cheryl, sons James Jr.(Theresa), Michael(Tori), and grandchildren Sarah, Jackson, Luke and Emily.

“ Jim was one of the best persons to serve the California Association of Public Cemeteries. He graciously took over the job of Vice-President for the Board of Directors, when I was unable to continue due to illness in my family. He then went on to be a very fine Board President and served until he retired. His presence was greatly appreciated.
