

James "Jim" S. Sigler

December 22, 1937 - December 26, 2015

JAMES STEWART "JIM" SIGLER

December 22, 1937 – December 26, 2015

Jim Sigler, 78, passed away Saturday at Kaiser Hospital in Vallejo surrounded by his family.

Jim was born to Eugene "Gene" and Rae Sigler in San Francisco and has lived in Vallejo most of his life. He worked as a pump station operator for the Vallejo Sanitation and Flood Control District.

On December 21st our family found out that Jim had a short time. He passed away just five short days later. Our family is in shock and in mourning. His last request was to have a private family only service. We are honoring that request.

We want each and every person who was in his life to know that they were very important to him. Jim's friends meant the world to him and he loved them all very much. Our family wants to thank each and every one of you for being a part of his life.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents and his son, Stewart James Sigler.

Survivors include his wife of 57 years, Maureen; daughters, Debra (David) Martinez, Kellee (John) Sisneros and Angelique Sigler; grandchildren, Sean Sigler, Suzanne Sigler, Shelby Garcia and Benjamin Sisneros; great grandchild, Brooklyn Petullo-Sigler; and his lifelong best friend, Willis McJunkin.

Arrangements entrusted to the direction and care of Twin Chapels Mortuary, Vallejo (707)552-6696. www.TwinChapelsMortuary.com
