

Jazzerine Carey Norona

October 27, 1992 - February 2, 2022

Our remarkable and beautiful daughter, Jazzerine Carey Norona, was born on October 27, 1992 in Vallejo, California. With a heavy heart, on February 2, 2022, our precious daughter has gone home with the Lord. She was a true artist who expresses positivity and love in her poems, songs, blogs, journals, paintings and photography. She was truly a free-spirited creative entrepreneur who got into professional modelling in Los Angeles, San Diego, and San Francisco Bay Area. She was a Certified Holistic Coach, Event Planner, Jewelry Designer, Influencer, Writer, Lyricist, Poet, Photographer, Singer, and Actress.

She loved hiking, rock climbing, camping, roller blading and traveling around the country and the world. She lived a life well lived and she will be missed by many.

No parents and sibling can ask for a better daughter and sister. In her 29 years, she left many wonderful memories to remember her by. Her legacy will continue to touch people's lives and will be a beacon of hope to all of us who knew her and will know of her for many years to come. Until then, our sweet angel, our love... you are such a blessing to us all. Love, hugs and kisses from mom, dad and MJ.
