

Jeana Ann Lofas

January 5, 1963 - June 10, 2025

Jeana Ann Lofas, a lifelong resident of Vallejo, California, passed away peacefully on June 10, 2025, at the age of 62.

Born to Pete and Jean Lofas, Jeana was a devoted daughter, a loving mother to her son Eric and daughter Erica, caring grandmother to Avah, and a cherished sister to Patricia and Peter. Her warmth, humor, and generous spirit touched the lives of all who knew her.

Jeana was known for her unwavering kindness, quick wit, and ability to make others feel seen and valued. Whether through a thoughtful gesture, a heartfelt conversation, or simply sharing a laugh, she left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

A dedicated friend and confidante, Jeana believed deeply in the power of connection and compassion. Her love extended not only to her family but to the many friends and neighbors she held dear throughout her life.

She will be profoundly missed and lovingly remembered by her family, friends, and all whose lives she brightened.

“ My best friend for 40+ years. My second home, my second set of parents. We grew together. You are so beautiful outside and in. You always gave to everyone you were close to. Your kindness spread far. You will be missed in this world. I love you and will see you on the other side.

“ I'm saddened to hear about the passing of Jeana Pete and Jean daughter. I'm several years older but do her and her brother. Her parents were the nicest people, it sounds like she was chip off the old block as they say. Never the less it's still sad. God bless the family.
