“ To my BIG brother and cousin whom I will miss dearly. Heaven just got a lot brighter since your passing. Now that you’ve joined your parents in heaven you are free from all your pain and smiling again down on all of us . I will always remember you as a caring loving father and husband. I know how much you loved your wife and how your going to miss her but now she has a guardian angel always next to her. Everyone who knew you were blessed to have you as a friend because you always put yourself in front of others. We will forever have you in our hearts and memory. Until we meet again Kuya boy.

“ Our “Coya Boy” everyone’s big brother. Instrumental and the glue that kept his brothers and sisters together when his mom passed. Our families lived in the same neighborhood so everyone grew up together. I use to babysit his boys, enjoyed many of his parties he and ate Evelyn hosted. Many memories but as I said before he was the beloved big brother of everyone... corrected us when we were wrong and mentored us when we were growing up. I had forgotten he served in the Marines (thank you for your dedicated service)! My heart goes out to the family, he will always be around spiritually to guide everyone as he always has done. Find comfort that he is pain free and with our Lord. Let us celebrate his life and what he meant to each of us... that is how we can keep him alive in our Hearts 💕.
