

Joyce Marie Walker

December 19, 1938 - September 16, 2022

JOYCE MARIE WALKER

December 19, 1938 – September 16, 2022

Joyce Marie Walker, 83, of Vallejo, California passed away peacefully on September 16, 2022, at the Lodge at Glen Cove.

Joyce was born in Kansas to Roy and Gladys Jones and has lived in Vallejo for over 30 years. She worked as an elementary school teacher for the Vallejo School District her entire career. She was heavily involved with the local community and her church, Vallejo Central Seventh Day Adventist Church where she was an elder, played the organ and taught Sabbath School. She was beloved by numerous students and families and will be greatly missed by all.

Joyce loved music and enjoyed playing the piano and organ, going to the gym, and staying active. She was a competitive water skier and won several medals for trick water skiing. She also loved travelling extensively with friends and was an avid bird watcher and nature lover.

She is survived by her sons, Derek, and Tim Walker.

A Memorial Service and Celebration of Life will be held at 2 PM Saturday,

October 8 at the Vallejo Central Seventh Day Adventist Church, 1111 Colusa St., Vallejo. Inurnment will be private.

Cremation and arrangements entrusted to the direction and care of Twin Chapels Mortuary, Vallejo (707) 552-6696. www.TwinChapelsMortuary.com

Previous Events

Memorial Service

OCT 8. 2:00 PM (PT)

Vallejo Central Seventh Day Adventist Church
1111 Colusa Street
Vallejo, CA

Tribute Wall

KG

“Joyce- I will miss your humor and ability to conjole your cousin, Shirley, out of a bad mood with a light hearted song or memory. You must have been a fabulous teacher!! Holidays won't be the same without you. I hope heaven has plenty of snicker bars and diet Pepsi. Love, Kandice

Kandice Gress - September 29, 2022 at 03:29 AM