“ Laura and I he been friends for 50 years. We met while working for the County Welfare Department. We became instant friends, going to lunch nearly every day Over the years we traveled with a group of friends to Sedona, Yellowstone, Sequoia, Zion National Park, and had many "Girls Camping Trips". Laura didn't like cooking, so on our camping trips or condo camping, she was resident dishwasher. One of her favorite things to do was play Scrabble with her friends. She was hard to beat, being an avid reader, she had a great vocabulary. We've had lots of fun, many adventures and a zillion laughs over the years, Laura was loyal and caring, and a special friend, to me, to our group of friends, and her family. I will continue to miss our Tuesday game day, with breakfast, that we have shared for over 15 years, rain or shine. I loved her like a sister.

“ Just a short time ago, Laura asked me to tell her the story of her talking me into going to the movies. She was on school break and she called to ask me to go to the movies with her. “No, I can’t. Real bad cold. I didn’t go to work it’s so bad. “ Well she came anyway. “She decided it would be good for me to get some fresh air. “ So, we were just going to town and if I didn’t feel like it we would just eat lunch and come back. Well guess what. About six hours later, after two movies and lunch and..... She thought I ought to stop by Kress’s Store and let them know I would be to work the next day. I loved her so much and will miss our talks.
