

Lawrence Joseph Donovan

February 19, 1945 - November 25, 2014

LAWRENCE JOSEPH DONOVAN

February 19, 1945 – November 25, 2014

A gentle soul has taken his leave.

Lawrence Joseph Donovan was born in Vallejo to Lawrence O. and F. Aileen Fredrickson Donovan on February 19, 1945. He left this earth on November 25, 2014 after a short illness.

From an early age, Joe was the family jokester. He had multiple jokes always at the ready, even to his last day. He was quick and inquisitive with a sharp mind and vast memory. He attended U.C. Berkeley and was in the early wave of computer programmers at PG&E. He recently retired from Hilltop Ford.

He shared a great love with Jo Brewer. He was father to James (Lisa) Donovan of Central Point, OR, and Joanne Donovan of Sacramento. He was grandfather to James Donovan, Candace Blackwell and Charlotte Frank, and great-grandfather to Lawrence J., Jayde and Ashley. He is also survived by brothers Mike, Dennis (Terri), and Bill (Bonnie Blakefield); sisters Mary Jolly, Nancy (Wayne) Martin, Terry Peach (Jim Foley), Celia (Mark) Reese, Connie Donovan (Alicia Honn), and Carole (Jim) Neubauer, as well as numerous nieces, nephews and greats.

He joins at peace his parents and brothers Tom and Tim.

Services will be at The Gateway Church, 1315 Military West, Benicia on Saturday, Dec. 6 at 2:00 p.m. Reception to follow.

Cremation and arrangements entrusted to the direction and care of Twin Chapels Mortuary, Vallejo (707) 552-6696 www.TwinChapelsMortuary.com

Previous Events

Service

DEC 6. 2:00 PM (PT)

The Gateway
1315 Military West
Benicia, CA 94510