

Linda Francis Morse

May 20, 1947 - February 2, 2025

Linda Francis Morse, 77, passed away peacefully on February 2, 2025, in Vallejo, California. Born on May 20, 1947, in Clinton, North Carolina, Linda lived a life filled with love, family, and cherished experiences.

Linda was the beloved wife of Robert Morse and a devoted mother to her son Charles Matthew Morse and daughter Rachelle Lee Ragan. She was also a proud grandmother to Alyssa Ragan and Andrew Ragan. Her extended family included many nieces, nephews, and cousins who held a special place in her heart. She was predeceased by her parents, Phoebe and Raymond Lee; her brother Jimmy Lee; her sisters Judith Simmons and Judy Miller (sister-in-law).

Linda's life was marked by her dedication to family and community. She spent 38 years as a valued employee at Kaiser Permanente, where she undoubtedly touched the lives of many through her work. Beyond her professional career, Linda found joy in spending time with loved ones at their country home in Napa—a place so meaningful that the city named the street after them when they moved. (Morse Ct.)

An active member of her community during her time in North Fork Ca., Linda served as president of the local women's club. She had a passion for being around children and enjoyed working alongside her daughter at her home preschool. Linda also shared special moments with her son Matt at concerts and regularly attended sprint car racing events.

Her adventurous spirit led her to travel across all 50 states, creating memories that spanned the United States and Canada. Whether it was enjoying quiet moments with family or embarking on new journeys, Linda embraced life fully. She also treasured time spent with her sister and found happiness in simple pleasures like gathering with loved ones.

Linda's legacy is one of love, laughter, and an unwavering commitment to those she held dear. Her memory will continue to bring comfort to all who knew her.

May she rest in peace.
