

Loida Nagal Naranja

July 1, 1928 - January 22, 2024

Loida Nagal Naranja, 95 of Vallejo, CA passed away peacefully on January 22, 2024 surrounded by her children and extended family.

Loida, (aka Mama, Auntie Erling, Autie Loida) was born on July 1, 1928 to Ramon Nagal and Teodora Ruiz Nagal in her hometown of Agno, Pangasinan. She was one of six children with only one surviving brother, Renato Nagal. She attended Far Eastern University in the Philippines and majored in Education. She was a Home Economics teacher for about two decades then, decided to change her career path to work for the Bureau of Customs in the Philippines. She migrated to the United States in 1982 through the sponsorship of her youngest and only surviving brother, Renato. She worked as a caregiver in San Francisco, CA.

She was known for her independence and resilience. She lived by herself in a senior living apartment until the age of 92, then stayed with family until her passing. She has a “big appetite” which we believe prolonged her life and reached the age of 95.

Loida was predeceased by her husband, Ernesto Naranja (2002). She is survived by her 4 children: Leilani, Bong, Randy, Rachel, and brother, Renato. She is also survived by her 11 grandchildren (Liancale, Kathleen, Johnjamewel, Von, Zeramae, Ysabel, Carlo, Justin, Kristin, Evan, Kaina Rae) and 7 great grandchildren (Liahra, Alex, Kiel, Jayden, Gianna, Migi, Matty).
