“ First of all My Belated Condolences to the family.

I don't get the newspaper so I was unaware that Mr. Palmaffy passed. I have been walking my dogs past his house for the past 20+ years and my dogs always loved to stop and get a good scratch and pet. Not the same dogs, but the same happiness to see him when he was out working on the yard.

I started to notice I was missing him, then the truck was gone, so I had to start researching to find out what happened. For some reason I could not find any neighbors out to ask.

I already miss our almost daily chats about the dogs, he was a very nice man and I am grateful to have known him.

“ On behalf of the United States Submarine Veterans (USSVI), I offer our sincere condolences on Michael’s passing. You and your loved ones are in our thoughts and prayers. We are forever grateful for Michael’s service to our country in the U.S. Submarine Service. To our Brother of the Phin we say, “Sailor, rest your oar. We have the watch. May you rest in peace and may God bless your loved ones who remain. Thank you for your service to our country.”

“Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way.”

2 Thessalonians 3:16.

Palmaffy, Michael J., ET1(SS), US Navy, Now on Eternal Patrol. Fair Winds and Following Seas to our departed shipmate. Michael’s record is posted online in the Eternal Patrol file on the USSVI website.

*I have one consolation that lives with me today.
That God is near to them, in his own special way.
So God in all Your mercy, keep near Thyself the soul,
Of every Submariner, still on his final patrol.*

*Lord, this departed shipmate with Dolphins on his chest is part of an outfit known as the best.
Make him welcome and take him by the hand.
You’ll find without a doubt he was the best in all the land.*

*So, heavenly Father add his name to the roll of our departed shipmates still on patrol.
Let them know that we who survive will always keep their memories alive.*

*Rev. Ray Fritz, Acting National Chaplain United States Submarine Veterans, USSVI.

“ My favorite memories of Mike are when he came out to Nebraska for a visit several years ago and watched many of our baseball games (my oldest son, Derek was playing then and I was the coach)..we got to know him a lot better and learn more about his passion for baseball, community, and life...Also, am very glad that Betty and Mike were able to attend my aunt's (Elaine) 80th birthday celebration in San Diego...where all four Buechter sisters were in attendance..was great to see both of them and talk in an informal setting with many family members and friends..a life well-lived, Mike..
