

Natividad Rosario Famalette

November 27, 1923 - March 27, 2022

After 98 years with us, on March 28th the soul of Natividad Rosario Famalette returned home to join her beloved husband Michael Louis Famalette in paradise.

Natividad, or as she was lovingly referred to as "Lola," was born in the province of Binmalley, Philippines. She was a long time resident of Solano county. She loved to go gambling at the Casinos, till her garden, watch her flowers bloom and cook feasts of plenty for her family. She was an expert at making and rolling her Lumpia recipe. During the Winter months she would always prepare her winter soup "Lugaw," her porridge of health. During the Summer's heat she could be caught "calling the wind," by whistling into the environment and inviting the returning cool breeze into the house.

She is survived by her 4 children; Velma M. Cereca, Jose P. Famalette, Michael Famalette Jr. and Pasqualina J. Famalette Watson, her Grandchildren, her 5 great-grandchildren and one loyal, loving Chow-chow.
