

Nenita Lasquety Saludo

September 27, 1932 - October 31, 2024

In Loving Memory

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of a beloved mother, grandmother, and friend, Nenita Lasquety Saludo, who departed this life at the age of ninety-two. Born on September 27, 1932, in Calapan, Mindoro, Philippines, she was the ninth of ten siblings in a close-knit family.

A woman of remarkable strength and grace, she married Mauro Saludo at age 27, sharing a loving partnership until his untimely passing when he was forty-five years old. Throughout her life, she demonstrated extraordinary resilience and determination, building a distinguished career that spanned two continents.

Her professional journey began as a Home Economics teacher, sharing her passion for cooking and homemaking with students. Later on, she became a Chief Tax Consultant at Quezon City Hall for 20 years. In 1982, she embarked on a new chapter in the United States, joining the San Francisco International Airport as a TSA Agent (then known as ITS), where she served for twelve years until retiring in Vallejo at age 62.

Known for her homemade recipes of pancit, fresh lumpia, and the signature family cake, her family eagerly awaited her cooking. Her zest for life was evident in her love for travel, socializing, and dressing up.

She remained actively involved in cultural events, senior activities, and beauty pageants, at the Filipino-American Community in Vallejo, California. Her faith was the cornerstone of her life, expressed through her devoted participation in the Handmaids for Christ, regular Bible studies, and daily rosary prayers.

She leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and service that will continue to inspire all who knew her. Her cheerful spirit, unwavering faith, and generous heart touched countless lives, and she will be deeply missed by her son, Jojo; daughter, Ruth; in-laws and grandchildren.

May her soul rest in eternal peace, surrounded by the love she so freely gave to others during her remarkable journey on earth.

Please join us in celebrating her life on Monday, November 18, 2024 starting at 10:00 AM, Twin Chapels Mortuary, 1100 Tennessee St. Vallejo, CA 94590.
