“ I haven't seen you for many years but I remember when I used to visit when you lived on Marquette, I could see the love you had for your boys. God Bless you and Rest in Peace.

“ You are the best Dad anyone could ask for! You waited to see all your sons before moving to heaven. That's just amazing!

I will always remember your phone calls displaying "Dad" calling to check in on me no matter where I relocated to for work (RI, NV, WA, CA, TN, MS, LA). Despite being miles away, you always checked in on me. You worked very hard your whole life to give us kids a quality future. You worked weekends, worked nights, gave up things for yourself to give to us boys. Later, you encouraged me to work hard to make a good living for myself.

I will never forget our one on one time together as a young boy and when you taught me to ride my first bike and how you enjoyed the simple things like watching the stars at night.
