Pat Whiteside

July 14, 1931 – June 27, 2016

Pat died peacefully on June 27, 2016 after an extended illness. She was 84 years old. Pat was born in Sacramento to Feril and Ada Woolley. She was raised in Roseville and Vallejo and attended Vallejo Senior High School.

Upon graduation, Pat worked for the Vallejo Electric Light and Power Company. In 1950 Pat married Floyd Whiteside. During her marriage, Pat focused on raising her family and volunteer work. She later worked for twenty years as a paraeducator at Highland Elementary School in Vallejo.

During her retirement years, Pat enjoyed taking cruises, vacationing in Hawaii, and pursuing her passion for experiencing new restaurants. Pat is survived by her daughters, Patrice Norris (Randy) of San Ramon and Laurie Swanson (Dan) of Benicia; grandsons, Craig & Kyle Norris and Ryan & Evan Swanson; and brother, Tom Woolley. She is predeceased by her husband, Floyd. They were married for sixty-two years.

Pat was immensely dedicated to her family and they will miss her dearly. She will always be in their hearts.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that donations be made in honor of Pat to the Alzheimer's Association (alz.org).

Pat's family would like to acknowledge Kam Gantan and the staff of Greenhills Care Home for their compassionate and loving care during her time with them.

A private family memorial will be held.

“ I remember Aunt Pat and Uncle Floyd let me stay at their house several times when I Was 16 or 17 years old. I had gone to the Junior/Senior prom with Paula Tooleatos in 1986/87 (?) Aunt Pat made the the best breakfasts I can remember and was just as loving and welcoming as she could be. Uncle Floyd and I went down to a local basketball court and played a few games.
