

Patricia Anne Herrmann

February 6, 1952 - February 16, 2026

Patricia Anne Herrmann, 74, passed away peacefully at Marshfield Villa, surrounded by the love of her family.

Born and raised in Vallejo, Patricia—affectionately known as Patty—graduated from Vallejo High School before continuing her education at Sheldon Grant Riding School, where she deepened her lifelong love of horses and graduated as an Assistant Instructor. While visiting home from school, she met Gene Herrmann, a hardworking single father who would become the love of her life. After a brief courtship, they were married and shared 47 wonderful years together. During that time, Patricia officially adopted his daughter, Kristen—a deeply meaningful and beautiful moment for their family.

Gene and Patty built a life rooted in partnership and in shared dreams, including owning and operating a working cattle ranch. In their later years, they discovered a passion for travel and the open seas, creating many cherished memories along the way.

Patricia is survived by her daughter, Kristen Lamb; her son-in-law, Daniel Lamb; her granddaughter, Danielle Lamb; and her grandson-in-law, Brandyn Byrnes.
