PETER PUJOL

Beloved husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather, Peter Pujol, 69, passed away peacefully Friday, January 20, 2012 at his home in Vallejo, California.

Pete loved to take his wife, Lucy dancing. He was a bowler for over 30 years and accumulated many trophies including an award for bowling a perfect 300. He also loved family get-togethers, a good poker game, and watching football.

Pete served in the Air Force in the early 1960s. He retired, after 18 years, from his position as Production Supervisor for National Gypsum Company in Richmond, California.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Braulio and Mary Pujol, and his brother, John Molina.

Survivors include his wife of 30 years, Lucy; children, Rick Collins, Patty Danz, Daniel Pujol, Kim Hutchins, Dolores Tatum, William Delgadillo, Daniel Latre and Joey Delgadillo; and sisters, Mary Rivera, Carmen Day and Emily Fiscus. Pete and Lucy have 18 grandchildren and 34 great grandchildren between them who will miss him greatly.
