

Phyllis Chavez

October 7, 1938 - March 3, 2025

Phyllis Chavez, age 86, died on March 3, 2025, at a local hospital after a short illness. Mrs. Chavez was born in Long Beach, CA, and was a Vallejo resident for over 66 years.

She was a beloved high school art teacher for many years with Benicia Unified School District, touching the lives of many students.

Her artistic talents extended beyond the classroom, from clay making, painting, stone carving, and wood working.

She was an enthusiastic fan of the San Francisco Warriors, following every game and player.

She was preceded in death by her husband George. Survivors include her children, Marie (Ed), Jerry (Ruth), and Clarice (Rick), seven grandchildren, several great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Her memorial mass will be celebrated on April 12, 2025, at 11:00 am at St. Vincent's Ferrer Catholic Church, 420 Florida St., Vallejo, with a private burial at a later time.
