“ Shcel for the past two plus years you've or I should say I've had the pleasure of calling you my best friend. Sometime we were more than best friends but never less than that. I'm so sad that you've left but am so happy you don't have to suffer from illnesses we've been dealing with the past two years. I'm so sorry I wasn't there to protect you. I will always love you and miss you everyday. Fly high my angel with no more fears or worry's . You are safe now and nothing worry about anymore . I will forever cherish the short time we had together and you can never be replaced!!!!

“ By Beautiful Bestie Schel, you are beautiful inside and out. I will miss our late night phone calls and talking about our kids and grand kids, I will miss running into you on the street and telling you to pull over no matter where you were so I could jump in your car and sit and talk for a couple hours about what was going on with you. I am happy you gave me one last gift and that is a dog that was wandering your mothers neighborhood and I named him Frankie after your Frankie who recently passed, I will cherish him. I hope you are dancing with the angels and I will visit your place of resting often and sit with you as we did before and share with you what is going on. I will look out for your kids and grand kids and of course your Mother Sheiren, I will check in on them from time to time. May you rest in eternal peace and fly high with the Angels my love!

My Sincere condolences to everyone who loved her

“ *Mama Schel,
You were a part of my life for so long...I'm still coming to terms with the fact that you are gone. I'm glad I had the chance to talk to you a month or so back and let you know that we all love you. I wish I could have seen you one last time at least. You took me in as a son, supported me, even told me when I was making the wrong decisions. I will always love you for everything you did for me. Rest in Love Mama Schel. I will see you again someday.*

“ Dearest Schel - Our hearts are broken that you are no longer here with us to share your beautiful smile and laughter. Natalia and Kyla will miss the years of learning what a wonderful grandma you have been, but we promise to keep your memory alive. You left me with such precious gifts in Krystiana, Shane and Jacob, and I am grateful and hope they will find purpose in life in making your dreams for them come true. If love could have saved you, you would have lived forever. "Love you as high as the sky." - Mom and Fernando
