

Roxanne Marie Lalaind

June 12, 1953 - May 22, 2018

The loving Roxanne Marie Lalaind passed away at home in Vallejo, Ca on May 22, 2018 at the age of 64.

Roxanne spent 25 years working as a registered nurse and dedicated her life to the service and care of others. In her spare time, she enjoyed family gatherings, shopping, traveling and the beautiful outdoors.

Roxanne was a devout Christian who gathered much strength and joy from her faith in God her entire life. Roxanne and her husband Clarence Lalaind enjoyed over 40 years of their loving relationship that produced five beautiful children to whom Roxanne was a deeply devoted. She is survived by her children Anna Lalaind, Angela Lalaind (Daniel Quigley), Afara Lalaind and Ava Lalaind; mother Sylvia Servine; sisters Julie Watkins, Wendy, Cindy, Megan, Carole, Melissa, Leslie and brother Scott. Clarence Lalaind III, her beloved son, her father, John Allen MacLoed and brother Michael MacLeod, preceded her in death. She was a proud and wonderful grandmother to Christopher Knoblock, Akeal Lalaind, Angela Williams, Antony Romero, Davontay Williams, Jayden Williams, and Alivia Jacobs.

Her great generosity and compassion for others will be remembered along with her loving spirit and fun personality. Roxanne had a very upbeat and witty personality that kept her going strong. She was profoundly kind and thoughtful towards others right to the end. She truly lived a fulfilling life as the matriarch of a large, close knit family who adored her.
