STEVE ALAN WATTS

May 10, 1947 – May 25, 2013

Steve Alan Watts, 66, passed away Saturday at Kaiser Hospital in Vacaville.

Born in Tulare, California, Steve lived most of his life in Vallejo, though he spent his later years in Vacaville. He served in the Army in Korea in 1967-68 and worked in construction most of his life, primarily as a plasterer. Later in life, he worked in mansions throughout the Bay Area, sculpting mantels and crown molding by hand. A devoted Catholic, Steve was a quiet man who loved, in his daughter's words, "music, movies, sports, and God." He also enjoyed creating art and motorcycling.

He is survived by his loving family, including brothers Eugene and Bradly, son Paul and daughter Melani Layton, son-in-law Errol Layton, and grandchildren Alex Claxton, Arden Claxton, and Errol Layton, Jr.

A memorial service and military honors will be held 9:30 AM Thursday at the Sacramento Valley National Cemetery in Dixon.

Tribute Wall

“ To my life long friend. We were born about the same time in the valley. Our parents were life long friends, who left the valley together and moved to Vallejo, where we visited each other often. Our families parted when we were in the forth grade, but we reconnected back in the valley during our high school years. We even rode to Tulare together, after graduation, to join the military together. After the service, we had a few good times. You even showed up when my youngest son passed away. I wish I would have known of your passing, for I would have been there for you. So many happy memories throughout our entire lives. God be with you and your family.
