

Theodoros Samaritis

December 15, 1946 - February 18, 2024

Theodoros Samaritis, a beloved husband, father, and friend, passed away peacefully in his sleep on February 18, 2024, at the age of 77. Born on December 15, 1946, in Impros on the island of Crete in Greece, Theodoros grew up as a shepherd's son. He served as a communications specialist in the Greek Army and worked as a carpenter before moving to the United States in search of a better life.

In the United States, he worked in a pizzeria in New York City before moving to Napa, California. There, he worked as a house painter, earning a reputation for his hard work and honesty. Theodoros was dedicated to providing for his family, and he is survived by his wife, Helen, and their two sons, Cosmas and Niko.

Theodoros had a passion for singing, soccer, football, and the weather channel, bringing joy and excitement to those around him. Despite struggling with dementia and illness in his later years, his love for his family never wavered. Even when his memory was fading he always expressed his affection to his family and told them “Σ’ αγαπώ” (S’agapo, I love you) during their visits. He was a man of faith, and even with dementia he would tell his family to remember God and to make the sign of the cross.

Theodoros will be remembered for his strength, his faith, his honesty, his love for his family, and his commitment to his work. His memory will be eternal for those who loved him.
