

Virginia Guevara Cachaper

June 6, 1932 - April 10, 2026

Virginia Guevara Cachaper passed away at home on March 29, 2026 (Palm Sunday) at the age of 93. She is the fourth child of Flaviano and Ambrosia Guevara. There were seven of them, Feliciano Guevara Sr, Eva Guevara Mateo, Rufo Guevarra, Virginia Guevara Cachaper, Aurora Guevara, Lourdes Guevara delas Alas and Ernesto Guevarra. Virginia was the middle child and the last to pass away. She was born in Kayquit Indang Cavite Philippines.

She went to Manila to study Education at Far Eastern University where she received her college degree.

She worked at the Ministry of Education and Culture (MEC), Student Accounting Dept. as a Researcher/Statistics where she retired in 1982. She met her husband, Nicolas Cachaper in same office. They were married on October 29, 1960.

Virginia was preceded in death by her husband Nicolas Cachaper in 2018. She is survived by her daughter, Alma Cachaper Arcega (Rogelio "Jong" Arcega) and a son Alvin Cachaper (Henry Flynn), grandchildren Raymond Arcega (Machiko Arcega), Remilla Arcega Ty (Emil Ty), Rochelle Arcega Reyes (Justin Reyes), great grandchildren Ender Ty, Rocky Ty, Valencia Ty, Maisey Ty and Beniko Arcega.

Virginia and Nicolas Cachaper migrated here to the US in 1993 and lived with daughter, Alma. Moving here in the US was a dream come true because she had a chance to be together with her kids and grandkids. She was able to witness her grandchildren getting married and met all her great grandchildren. She also had a chance to take care of them. Her grandchildren and great grandchildren meant everything to her.

Virginia, Inay, Ate Gigi, or Nanay to everyone will be missed. She was kind and always prayed for everyone or anyone who asked for prayers. She always prayed for her grandchildren while growing up to make sure they were safe. She was a fighter and fought her sadness of missing her husband when he passed away. We thank God for sharing her to us for a long time. She will be sorely missed. It will never be the same without her.
